

Contents

Preface: Andrew Hilton

Dr. Hilton is a poor, harmless drudge, of no account whatever. 1

Mohammed Abalkhail “Lessons from the Gulf”

Sheikh Mohammed Abalkhail was finance minister in Saudi Arabia from 1975 to 1995. 2

Abdulaziz al-Quraishi “Financial and banking crises since the 1970s”

Mr. al-Quraishi was Governor of SAMA for nine years during the first and second oil shocks. 4

Geoffrey Bell “Present and past: How different?”

Mr. Bell is the founder of the Group of 30. 7

Bob Bench “Barack to the future: some observations on the financial crisis”

Mr. Bench is a former Deputy Comptroller of the Currency and managing partner of PwC’s Regulatory Advisory Practice. 10

Sir Samuel Brittan “Some recession reflections”

Sir Samuel is one of the UK’s leading financial journalists. 13

Peter Cooke “Some comments on the current scene and its antecedents”

Mr. Cooke is a former head of banking supervision at the Bank of England, chairman of the so-called Cooke Committee and chairman of PwC’s Regulatory Advisory Practice. 17

Sir Andrew Crockett “New approaches to stabilizing the global financial system”

Sir Andrew is a former executive director at the Bank of England, and general manager at the BIS. He is president of JP Morgan Chase International. 22

Sam Cross “Can we learn from the Ages and the Sages?”

Mr. Cross is a former executive V-P at the New York Fed. 27

Christopher Fildes “Thomson Hankey rides again”

Mr. Fildes is a leading UK journalist, and the progenitor of the iconic ‘Herbie’ column during the heyday of the euromarkets. 31

Charles Goodhart “The Latin American Debt Crisis of 1982”

Prof. Goodhart is the co-founder of the financial markets Group at LSE, and a former chief advisor to the Governor of the Bank of England. 33

Toyoo Gyohten “Japan’s lost decade and the subprime crisis”

Mr. Gyohten was Vice-minister for International Affairs at MoF and chairman of the Bank of Tokyo. 36

Erik Hoffmeyer “The quest for stability”

Mr. Hoffmeyer was chairman of the Danish Central Bank for 29 years. 39

Sir Martin Jacomb “Reflections of crises past”

Sir Martin is a former chairman of BZW and the Prudential. 41

Henry Kaufman “Financial consequences of the credit crisis” Dr. Kaufman was a senior partner at Salomon Bros, and is a legend on Wall St.	45
Roger Kubarych “No excuses for forgetting” Dr. Kubarych is a former chief economist at the NYSE and the Conference Board, and deputy director of research at the New York Fed.....	48
Manfred Lahnstein “An immediate challenge for Europe” Mr. Lahnstein is a former Federal Minister of Finance in Germany.....	51
Robert Monks “No innocent shareholder” Mr. Monks is the founder of Institutional Shareholder Services and the LENS Fund. He is a leading activist on corporate governance.	53
Sir Jeremy Morse “Back to first principles?” Sir Jeremy is a former chairman of Lloyds Bank.....	58
Shijuro Ogata “Lessons from international financial crises” Mr. Ogata is a former deputy governor of the Bank of Japan.	60
Sir Brian Pearce “Lessons from the US – and listening to the bowels of the bank” Sir Brian is a former chief executive of Midland Bank.	63
David Potter “Sharing the blame” Mr. Potter is a former chief executive of Guinness Mahon.	66
Brian Quinn “Déjà-vu? Or ‘This time it’s different?’” Mr. Quinn is a former executive director of the Bank of England with responsibility for financial supervision.....	69
John S Reed “The $800 billion question: How to get capital in and questionable assets out” Mr. Reed spent 16 years as chairman of Citigroup. He is also a former chairman of the NYSE.....	72
Barry Riley “The 1970s revisited” Mr. Riley was a senior writer on the FT’s Lex column during the UK’s secondary banking crisis.....	75
Eugene Rotberg “A 40-year retrospective” Mr. Rotberg spent almost 20 years as Treasurer and Vice-President of the World Bank.	80
Helmut Schlesinger “This crisis goes beyond anything we have experienced since 1950” Dr. Schlesinger spent almost 40 years at the Bundesbank, and was President from 1991 to 1993.	84
Joel Stern “Fixing corporate governance” Mr. Stern heads Stern Stewart, a financial strategy firm.	86
Mark Tennant “The City of London in the 1970s” Mr. Tennant is a senior advisor to JP Morgan and a member of the international advisory board of T Rowe Price.....	90

Ola Ullsten “Learn from the past and use today’s troubles to plan for the future” Mr. Ullsten is a former Foreign Minister and Prime Minister in Sweden. He is currently co-chairman of the World Commission on Forests and Sustainable Development.	95
Albert Wojnilower “To prevent it happening again” Dr. Wojnilower was, for many years, ‘Dr. Doom’ to Henry Kaufman’s ‘Dr. Gloom’ (or vice-versa). He spent many years as chief economist at First Boston (and CSFB).	100
Stanislas Yassukovich “Where it all went wrong” A legendary ‘gunslinger’ in the City (with White Weld), who became a pillar of the establishment.	103
Minos Zombanakis “Tightening up the rules again” Another founder of the Euromarkets, Mr. Zombanakis headed the international operations of Manufacturers Hanover and First Boston.	108

Cover illustration by Joe Cummings